AFTER BURNER.™

Fry the unfriendly skies.

The F-14 Thunder Cat. It's the fastest, meanest set of wings ever to slice through the air. And you're flying it! The action in this supercharged game is so intense, the graphics, so real, you'll sweat bullets as bogies fill the skies. Get vertigo from going vertical! The rush you feel is from pulling heavy G's as you try to evade lightning-fast missiles and tracers.

Feel your adrenaline pumping as your radar locks on to multiple targets and your Sidewinders blow them out of the sky. When you feel the need for speed, go supersonic with AFTER BURNER!

Ms. PAC-MAN™

Woman's lib movement strikes the Pac-Man family!

Pac-Man had it pretty good when he exploded on the scene, roaming around one maze, gobbling up dots and evading ghosts.

But Ms. Pac-Man believes in being totally liberated. So she gets to move around in lots of different, bigger mazes. Even the fruits get into the act, wandering aimlessly around.

Ms. Pac-Man also has a speed-up button (to really shake those pesky ghosts) as well as a level-select feature so she can jump to different levels of difficulty. Two people can play together, competitively or cooperatively.

You've come a long way, Ms. Pac-Man!

HARD DRIVIN'.™

Compared to this, real driving is real boring!

Sure, driving a real high performance car can be quite a blast. But where can you do vertical loops, high-speed races and high-flying jumps? In Hard Drivin', that's where! Hard Drivin' seats you behind the wheel to feel all the thrills of stunt driving.

Jump a draw bridge or go around a 360° loop! Put the pedal to the metal for some fast driving. The true 3-D screen display will have you leaning into corners. Every time you crash, you get to see an instant replay of your accident.

Like the incredible arcade hit, this Hard Drivin's looking for a few hard drivers. No license, or cars, required.

SHINOBI™ Clash of the Master Ninjas.

SHINOBI™
In Japanese, it means stealth, a perfect description of a master Ninja.

And that's exactly what you are! Armed with throwing stars and your finely-honed battle skills, you must defeat The Ring of Five.

Fight your way past mercenaries and karate thugs. Take on the meanest martial artists. Take out henchmen and rescue hostages.

But these dangers pale in comparison to your ultimate challenge: A fight to the death against five evil Ninja Assassins whose mastery of the deadly ancient arts may well surpass your own!

RBI™ BASEBALL 2.

If it gets any more realistic, you'll need gloves to play!

RBI Baseball first set the standard. RBI Baseball 2 raises it to a new level. You get all the major league teams, each with full rosters of 24 players. Every player comes with his actual '89 stats.

Brand-new graphics make the players look so real, you'll think they're alive. Improved music and sound effects add to the illusion: batters actually say "ow!" when hit by a pitch!

You get the designated-hitter rule, switch-hitting and your own lineup and starters, just like a real manager!

RBI Baseball 2 gets the full approval of the people that really count, the Major League Baseball Players Association!

ALIEN SYNDROME™

The battle between flesh
and slime.

The extra-terrestrials in this game are anything but friendly. They're slimy monsters that are holding space colonists captive aboard alien starships.

Up to two players can try to free the helpless hostages. Search each ship's deadly levels, using flamethrowers and laser cannons to vaporize alien scum. Look for maps to help you find your way. After you've saved all the captives from one ship, you must destroy its monstrous leader before you can move on to the next ship.

Remember, to the aliens, you're slime. And they want you good...and dead.

ROLLING THUNDER.™

Cold fury on a hot mission.

ROLLING THUNDER: the name of the world's most powerful secret police force.

You: its best agent. Your mission: destroy a ruthless conspiracy to conquer the world.

But there's more. The enemy has captured the beautiful agent Leila. You've got to move fast — she can't hold out much longer! Armed with a powerful handgun, you run, jump and blast your way through treacherous passageways. Enter marked doors to collect bullets or special weapons. The deeper you go, the more deadly the enemy becomes.

This time, it's not just an action-packed game that tests your reflexes to the max. This time, it's personal!

TOOBIN!® It's totally tubular!

Wanna be a party animal? Then, you gotta play Toobin'! It's the most fun anyone can have on an inner tube!

You and a buddy can take turns paddling down a prehistoric swamp, jostling with dinosaurs and cavemen. Or cruise down some modern city river where you'll try to evade nasty punks and slimy industrial sludge. If that isn't far-out enough, try floating down some Martian canals — where the water's purple and everything's really out of this world!

These are just examples, dudes. Toobin's got so many places to tube, it'll blow your mind.

Jump in, the water's totally rad and bad!

ROAD RUNNER™

Ready... Set...
Go Beep!
Beep!

That's right, folks,
the cartoon you
know and love is ready to roll again
— except this time you get to be

Road Runner™! The desert's plenty dangerous all by itself:
falling boulders everywhere, oncoming trucks, land mines
and cannon balls as well as mind-boggling mazes, menacing sand traps and dangerous ravines.

Throw in that crafty Wile E. Coyote™ and you've got one wild-goose chase that's fun, fast and exciting! Wile E. may not be too bright, but he is hungry. And he's got his rocket, jet skates, pogo stick and helicopter.

Better get cookin' before you get cooked.

VINDICATORS® Tanks for saving Earth.

The year is 2525. A hostile fleet of alien space stations approach to attack Earth.

The only way to destroy the invading force is through infiltration by Vindicators, the ultimate battle tank.

For one or two players, this exciting action game challenges you to pass through each station's heavily guarded corridors. Then locate and demolish its control room. Avoid and destroy enemy tanks and bunkers, all the while picking up fuel and special features that can make your tank even faster and more powerful.

Win and the world cheers with you.
Lose and kiss it goodbye.

FANTASY ZONE™

Action that's so far out, it's out of this world!

You're Opa-Opa, a
gutsy mechanoid
shaped like a little space ship. Fly
around in Fantasy

Zone, a solar system of eight planets, each more fantastic than the next. Evil Menons, nasty creatures of all different shapes and sizes, are trying to take over Fantasy Zone by using stolen money to build up their forces.

Your job is to recover the money and wipe out enemy creatures. Collect enough coins and you can buy powerful weapons and special engines to help you fly faster.

You'll need these super features — before you can fly off one planet, you've got to get past its extra-bad boss!

XYBOTS.®

Scrap metal before they scrap you.

Enter the deadly underground city of the Xybots and wipe out these metallic monsters.

In this one or two-player game, you prowl the corridors and use your trusty blaster to turn the never-ending wave of Xybot defenders into so much scrap metal. Superb animation and graphics make the action come alive. You get a unique 360° playfield: as you turn to face different directions in the game, your view rotates with you! That's right, you'll feel like you're actually inside the maze!

Can human reflexes prevail against the relentless attacks of robots gone mad? Only you can answer this question. Xybots. It's the final showdown between flesh and metal.

POLICE ACADEMY.™

First, the movies. Now, the video game!

Now you can play Police Academy and live the mad-cap adventures of the bumbling cadets! The mission in this wild and zany game is the most dangerous, the most puzzling and the most important any of these characters have ever experienced. They must save Commandant Lassard's prize possession — his goldfish!

Start out as Tackleberry, the lovable lunk. Continue on as the sexy Lt. Callahan and arrest as many jerks as possible at the Dorkie Diner. What character will you be next? Hey, this is just a preview. Play the game and find out for yourself!

Look for it on a small screen near you.
