GENERAL

Dave Lundberg's SIMON is a new, challenging version of the popular game. Colored bars appear in a random sequence--different every time you play-- and you must remember and match the sequence.

SCORING

Just make a record for matching the sequence.

LOADING THE PROGRAM

Please see the tape loading instructions.

HOW TO PLAY

When each color bar flashes, a tone plays to aid your memory. The bars pattern matches the pattern of the large keys, called function keys, on the right side of your VIC keyboard. The top key is for the top bar, the bottom key for the bottom bar and so on. SIMON shows a bar and plays a tone. Press the large key that matches. SIMON then plays two bars. Press the matching keys in the same sequence. As long as you're right, SIMON adds another. To SIMON, your success is a challenge: the better you do, the faster he goes. When you're finished SIMON shows you how many successes you had.

It's a challenge, even to top your own record.
